"ROLL
'Em!"

The 1981-82 school year was fun-filled, exciting, and composed of new and exciting changes. One major change was the new time schedule. The regular 8:10 to 2:40 school day was replaced with a 7:50 to 2:20 day. As a result of this time change came many "new faces" as the students "lounged" in the lounge. Another new and exciting change was the reopening of the Quincy Senior High I mall so students could go to class faster. QHS I received another major change which was the addition of more bleachers for the Devil fans.

The days progressed onward as did the facial expressions: smiles got bigger, teeth shined, and eyes widened. As lunch time got closer, teachers were able to hear the growling of hungry stomachs above the classroom din. Lunch time, however, did not receive any major change. Students remained conversing in the lounge as they munched away. Many students continued the tradition of open lunch by eating at various fast-food restaurants around the school area. They also could be found "cramming" in the library or "cramming" their books into their lockers.

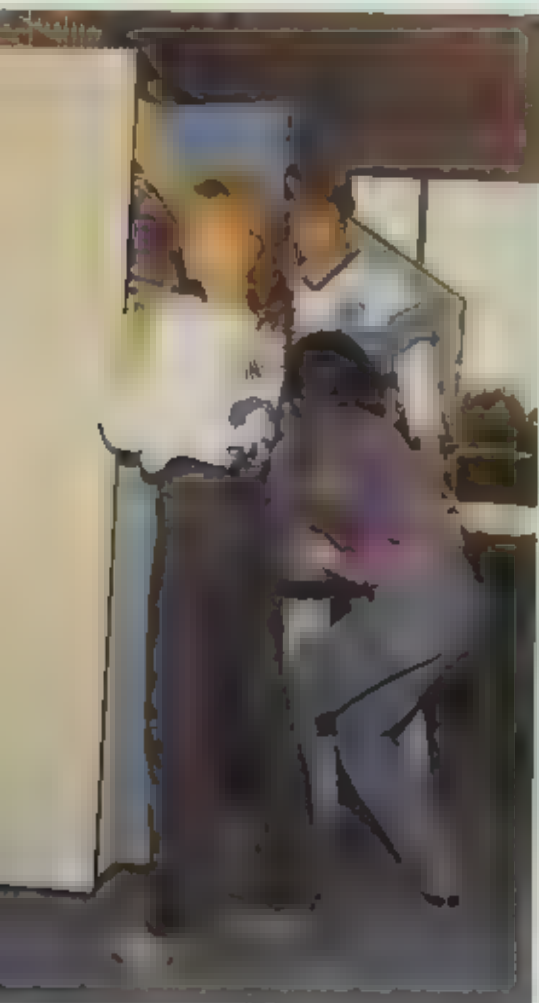

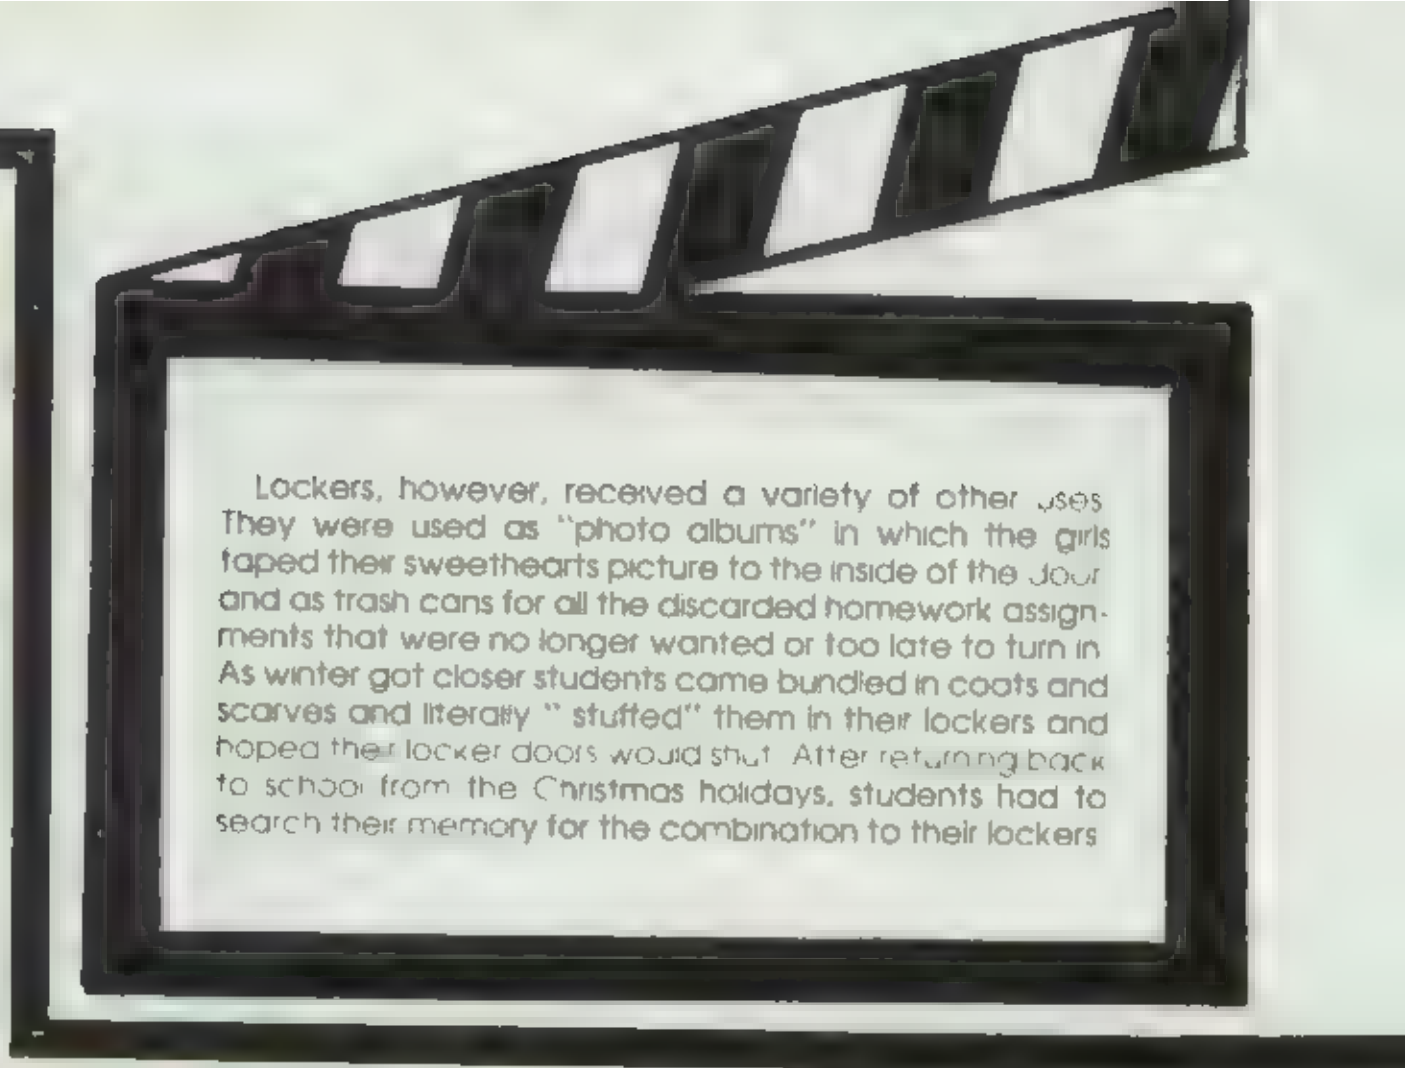

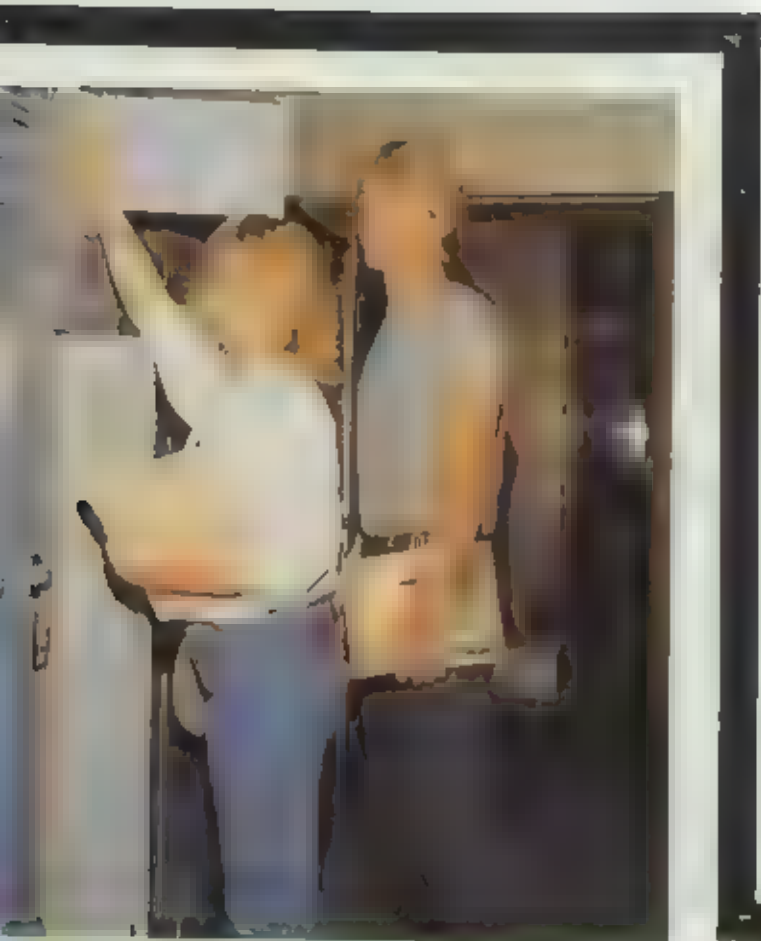

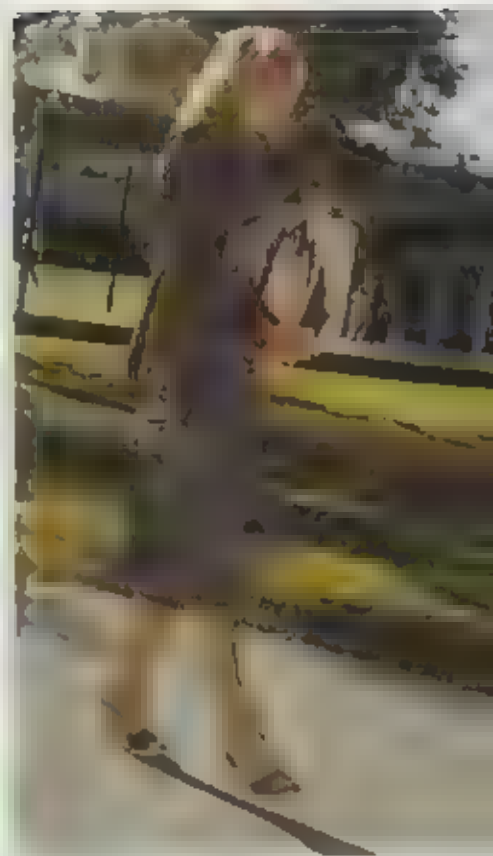

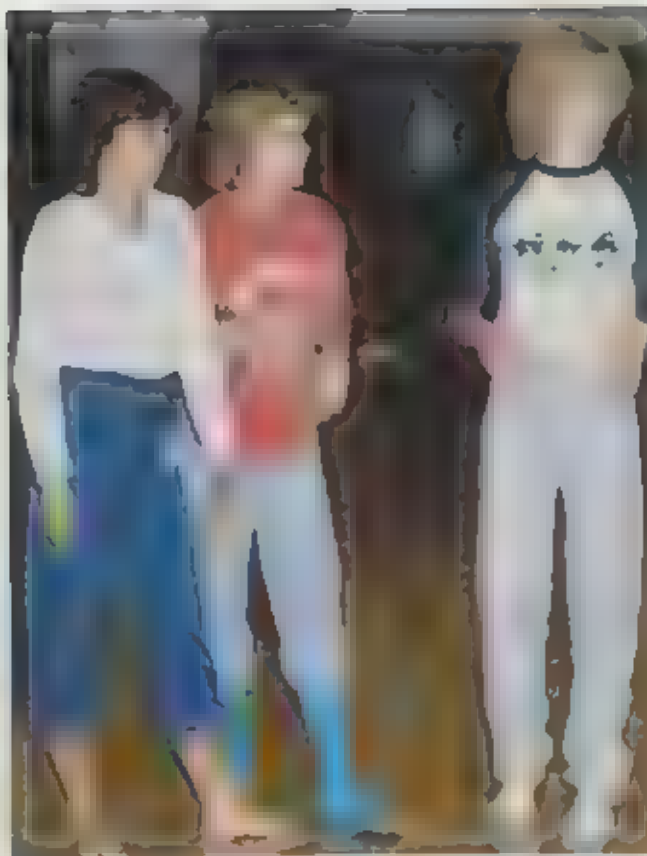

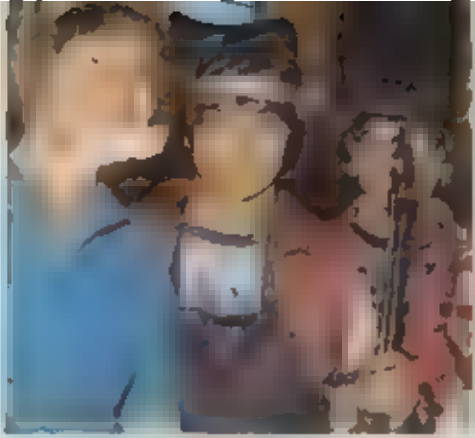

After school the students could be found involved in many activities. The most popular activities shared by most of the students were the football, soccer, and basketball games. They could be found cheering in the stands at Flinn Stadium bundled up, or in the QHS gym cheering the Devils to another victory. Some of the unpopular activities consisted of studying for chemistry tests, psychology tests and many others. Term papers and reports were other time consuming activities. The 1981-82 school year was an exciting and eventful year.

AROUND THE WORLD IN EIGHTY DAYS

Julia Ahlers was a first semester exchange student from Bremen, West Germany. She lived with the Guthrie family at 1217 Curtis Creek. She was amazed by the variety in this country. School was easy for Julia. She found families in America to be more dependent on each other. Julia was surprised by all the cars used in America. By coming to America, she learned to look objectively at her home country.

Ramiro Garza spent part of the 1981-82 school year in Quincy. He enjoyed his stay here and thought the city was very beautiful. Ramiro encountered many differences between his school in Monterrey, Mexico and Quincy High. In Mexico, there are many required courses where as in the United States, the opportunity to select classes is available. Ramiro loved Physical Education class. He became known as "Ace" when playing tennis for obvious reasons. Ramiro was fascinated by the many holidays in the United States.

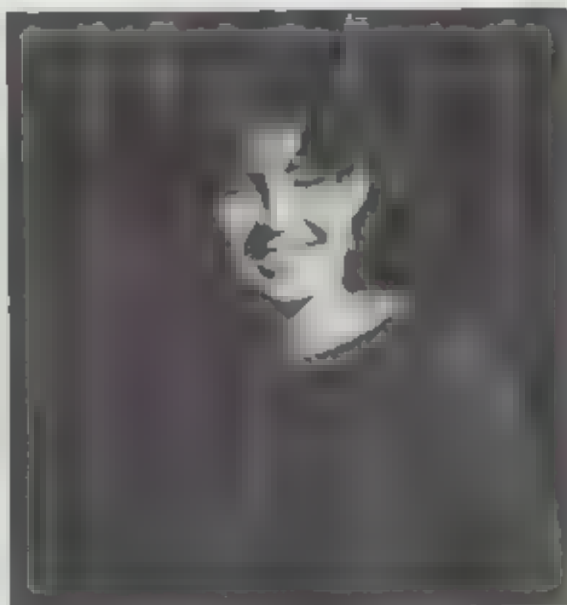

Second semester exchange student Ina Wessels came from Bremen West Germany. She is staying with the Dr. and Mrs. Lavern Wagner family of 2645 Hillside Dr. She loved staying with a large family because she came from a small one. Her hobbies include playing piano, cello, tennis, hockey, swimming, and surfing. Ina missed going for long walks with her parents on Sundays in Germany. One of the most prominent differences between American and German classrooms is how the Americans proudly display the flag of this country.

Ann Marie Larsson came to QHS from Stockholm, Sweden, through the AFS program. While here, she stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Tony Oakley at 1824 Maine. Ann Marie enjoys photography as a hobby and art was her favorite subject. She was also amazed by the dependency on cars in America. In Stockholm, Ann Marie had more subjects to complete in less time. She learned, "We are all one people living on the earth — love one another."

Sten Schou, of Maribo, Denmark was an exchange student for a full year at QHS II. While in the United States, he stayed with Robert and Linda Sparks. His favorite foods in America were hamburgers and pizza. Sten's hobbies include all kinds of sports. He enjoyed the Blue Devil basketball team as much as the rest of Quincy. During his stay, Sten was active in "Oklahoma." He found QHS to be stricter than his school back in Denmark. His stay taught him to understand people better. Sten remarked "I have had a lot of fun and I have met a lot of nice people."

Edgardis Garlin spent four months of the 1981-1982 school year with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Boeckleman. Her hometown is Bremen, West Germany. Contemporary and American History were her favorite subjects at Quincy High. Edgardis' hobbies were knitting and bicycle riding. She then learned a few new hobbies while staying with her host family. These hobbies included tennis and needlepoint. In her country the people dress according to their political opinions rather than the fads and fashions we partake in. At school in Bremen, the days were shorter compared to the hours here.

Birgitte Yndesdal, an exchange student from Oslo, Norway, attended Quincy High School during the 1981-1982 year. She lived with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Peter at 425 Evergreen East. Having a liking for sports, Birgitte's favorite subjects were P.E. and theater. She found it easy to make new friends in Quincy. Birgitte liked the people and good food in America. One of the biggest differences between Oslo and Quincy is the variety of television channels available. In her hometown school was harder, with a weekly schedule of 16-17 subjects.

Luis Acuna from San Jose, Costa Rica, came to Quincy High through the AFS program. His favorite subject was Human Relations as he enjoys speaking about international affairs. He also likes dancing. In Costa Rica, Luis had no choice of subjects but was required to pass 12-15 classes each year. Luis found the United States to be much more modern than his home country. He realized the opportunities in the fields of sports and politics. Luis stated "Quincy has been my experience and I'll keep a very special place in my mind and my heart for it and all of you will be in my memory forever!"

Joerg Rotermund, a native of Bremen, West Germany, attended Quincy High School during the first semester. After learning a new culture and religion, he would gladly be a part of this program again. Joerg found having six classes everyday the biggest change from school in Bremen. Math analysis was his favorite subject. He commented, "I really think I gained a lot for myself."

THE PROUD AND THE DAMNED

There's been many a great upset in sports' history, the '69 World Series, Super Bowl III, and now Powder Puff '81! Yes, folks, the Juniors pulled off the surprise of a lifetime, narrowly edging the Seniors by a 12-6 margin. In a game full of emotion, penalties, and ejections, the 1981 Powder Puff game turned out to be a great success. Both Junior and Senior cheerleading squads did a splendid job of keeping the crowd up and providing uncanny entertainment.

As always, the game was sponsored by the Quippi Yearbook Staff. The money made by the game was used as payment for color pictures for the yearbook. Many parents and students participated in making this year's contest an event not easy to forget.

The record now stands at one victory for the Seniors, one for the Juniors, and one tie. Next year's game is heavily anticipated, and time will tell if the Seniors will keep their pride or if the Juniors will surprise the school once again!

STIR CRAZY

At 5:30 p.m., October 2, 1981, the GHS Mardi Gras Homecoming Parade was under way. This parade, the first spirit parade put on by the high schools, was suggested as an alternative to the usual downtown parade due to lack of interest in past years.

The parade consisted of various banners, the cheerleading squads, the Varsity Pom-Pom Squad, several Homecoming attendants, and individuals wishing to participate in the festivities. Also attending this spirit parade were the marching band and color guard performing to repetitions of "Stand Up and Cheer."

THE LONGEST YARD

The football games for this year's Homecoming festivities were held on Friday night, October 2, following the QHS Marching Band parade. The fair evening coolness at Flynn Stadium was spirited by the cheerleaders. Students, faculty, parents, and loyal fans also joined in the chants of "Hail Quincy!" and "Hey fans, how do you feel?" and the school song, "Stand Up and Cheer!"

Halftime featured the QHS Marching Band playing such songs as "On Broadway" and "Birdland" while spelling the word "Jazz" in human formation. The naming of the Homecoming Court, a pyramid by the J.V. and Varsity Cheerleaders and a pom-pom routine to "Who Are You?" by The Who were also included as halftime entertainment.

The game, however, turned out to be a discouragement for the Varsity Blue Devils as they were defeated by the Galesburg Silver Streaks 0-36. The Sophomore Devils also felt the agony of defeat in the preliminary game as they were defeated by the Sophomore Silver Streaks 0-16.

ALL THAT JAZZ

The night had finally arrived. It was October 3, and everyone was looking forward to a good time at the 1981 Homecoming Dance.

After dining at such places as Pinocchio's, Tony's Old Place, The Plaza, The Patio, students and their dates arrived to find games, music, dancing, and more food. Games were played in the student lounge which appreciated the Mad Hatter's theme. Some of which were balloon popping, knock down the dolly, and pitch the token. Upon winning a game, the most common response for a prize was "ticket" — which was used as a chance to win a portable cassette tape player — after all, who wouldn't want to win a tape player? The lucky winner turned out to be Alan Hartley.

The climax of the evening came with the crowning of the king and queen and the naming of the attendants and their escorts. Following this the king and queen were honored by a spotlight dance, in which the court joined in.

Watch it you naughty boys

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance was held November 14, 1981. Once again it was the girl's big chance to ask out her favorite guy and treat him to dinner. The evening expenses included the price of the admission to the dance, which was determined by the girl's exaggerated waist size plus $1.50, the cost of the marriage ceremony, cheap skate — $ .50 or the deluxe — $2.00, a paper flower and refreshments of homemade cookies and punch.

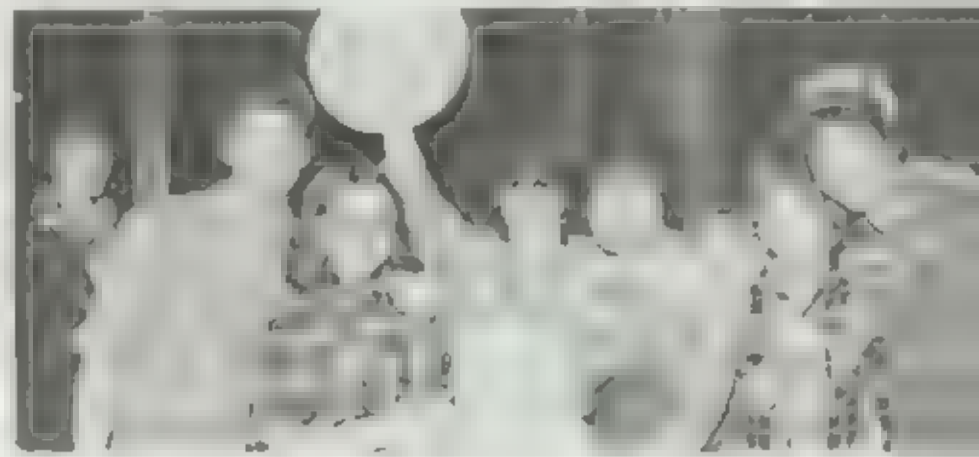

This year Mr. Sherman, the choral director, was chosen by a committee to reign as Miss Sadie Hawkins 1981. Also in the tradition of Sadies came the contest of the Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner look-a-like contests. The winners were Cindy Morrison and Steve Niederhauser respectfully. The most original costume was worn by Sharon Hall.

SENSATIONS

On Wednesday evening May 5, ninety-eight students were initiated into the Quincy Chapter of the National Honor Society. Twenty-two juniors and seventy-six seniors were welcomed into the society during a candlelight ceremony held in the GHS auditorium. Highlighting the ceremony was a speech made by Gary Scher, professional recruiter for Harris Corp., on reaching one's goals.

This year's National Honor Society met often to discuss possible projects. One project involved volunteering time to tutor anyone having difficulty with academic subjects. At Homecoming, Society members pooled their artistic abilities and constructed a banner for the spirit parade. National Honor members ended the year by helping with the annual Red Cross Bloodmobile and initiated new members. Officers this year were John Bitter, President; Kewea Bergman, Vice President; Debbie Dohm, Secretary; and Scott Knontz, Treasurer. Mrs. M. Fred Shroat, Mrs. Suzanne Duker, and Mr. Michael Humphrey served as very helpful sponsors this year.

To be selected for National Honor Society students must display the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Students must also maintain a 3.5 grade point average if a junior, and a 3.0 grade point average if a senior.

Officers: Kellea Bergman, Vice-President, John Bitter, President, Scott Koontz, Treasurer, Debbie Dahm, Secretary.

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of the "Moral Reform" movement in the early 20th century. It mentions that this movement was a response to the social and moral challenges of the time, particularly the influence of the Industrial Revolution and the changing roles of men and women.

2. The second part of the text describes the various activities and organizations involved in the Moral Reform movement. It mentions the establishment of Moral Reform Societies, the work of Moral Reformers, and the impact of these efforts on the community.

3. The third part of the text discusses the role of the church in the Moral Reform movement. It mentions that the church was a central institution in the community and played a significant role in promoting moral reform.

4. The fourth part of the text discusses the impact of the Moral Reform movement on the community. It mentions that the movement led to the establishment of various social and moral reforms, including the prohibition of alcohol and the regulation of the labor market.

5. The fifth part of the text discusses the legacy of the Moral Reform movement. It mentions that the movement laid the foundation for the modern social and moral reform movements of the 20th century.

THIS TIME FOREVER

Friday evening, May 28, marked the date of the annual Junior-Senior Reception. The dance, sponsored by the Junior Class Council, was a huge success. Highlights from the floor show were a duet by Jill Krueger and Maria Sword, singing performance by Beth Dutton, Chris Sullivan, and Deanna Gable, a piano composition by Matt King, an appearance by the Amazing Karnak, and a singing performance by the crowd's favorite, The Blues Brothers. Following the floor show, Jill Wolfmeyer and Sondl Campbell entertained the crowd by reading the Will. A slide show, narrated by Mr. Jerry Cripe, took students and teachers for a walk down memory land. Afterwards, everyone enjoyed refreshments and then moved out to the lounge for dancing. Music was provided by KQ-102, and everyone "bopped till they dropped."

PROM NIGHT

This year the seniors proved that these were the best of times. On Wednesday, June 2, 1982, the students began their evening enjoying various dinners at restaurants throughout the Quincy area. They then progressed to the new location of the Senior Prom. After many years of spending the evening at the Starlite Terrace, the students danced the night away at the Quincy College Student Center. This year's entertainment was provided by Night Shift. The center was decorated by members of the senior class. The girls showed up in an array of colors and styles of dresses. They ranged from old-fashioned hoops to today's typical prom dress to high-fashioned evening dresses. The guys came in various colored tuxedos with several illuminating the occasion with top hats, gloves, and canes. This year's theme "The Best of Times" was quite suitable to the event.

THE MAIN EVENT

"The Main Event" for five-hundred sixty seniors took place on the evening of Friday, June 4. Commencement exercises were held at Flinn Memorial Stadium. As the graduates lined up in the Lincoln School parking lot, family and friends filled the stadium's bleachers. The Quincy Senior High Orchestra led the graduates through the trees with "Pomp and Circumstance." Camera flashed and hands waved in the air as families spotted their graduating seniors.

Members of the Senior Concert Choir Quintet, opened graduation with the "Star Spangled Banner." The invocation given by Senior Class Vice-President, Kellea Bergman followed. Mr. Richard Hertholt presented the graduating Class of 1982 and Dr. Gary Blade accepted the graduates. Following a short speech, President of the Board of Education, Sam C. Rinella, awarded diplomas to the class. The awarding of diplomas was frequently interrupted by shouts of "I made it" and "ye-ha." During graduation, retiring teachers were honored for their many years of devotion to the Quincy School System. Angie Aden, Senior Class President, brought graduation to a close with the Benediction.

Proceeding the recessional, several graduates threw frisbee and graffiti in celebration of four years of hard work. Many hugs and last minute pictures followed the ceremony. The graduates then hurried to return their caps and gowns and get ready for the long awaited ALL Night Party.

The crowd waits anxiously at Flinn Stadium.

HOG WILD

Following graduation, members of the Class of 1982 and their guests went "Hog Wild" at the All Night Party. The doors of the Starlite Terrace opened at 10:30 P.M. As students walked in the door they deposited their ticket stubs in a box for the prize drawings. Prizes donated by merchants included T-Shirts, gift certificates, cash, as well as televisions, stereos, tape recorders and a giant cowboy hat.

For entertainment students could bowl, dance, eat, play pool, watch television, watch a tape of the state basketball game against Mendel, or just sit down and talk. Dancing was popular with those who wanted to keep an eye on the prize board. Two dance contests, one for couples and one for singles, highlighted the evening. Music was provided by Mobile Entertainer. Eating was popular with everyone! Submarine sandwiches, chips, cookies, mints, peanuts, and soda were all on the All Night Party menu.

The party was brought to an end about 5:00 A.M. with the drawing for the grand prizes. After one last dance students departed for an early morning breakfast or for that fluffy pillow on their bed. The All Night Party, which was planned by the graduates' parents, was a perfect ending to four years of fun and hard work.

OKLAHOMA

November 5th through the 8th, 1981 QHS II theatre attendance records were broken. Over 3000 people attended the fall production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma" making it a complete sellout.

Under the direction of Tom and Kathy Burnett, Dan Sherman, Kathy Dooley-Lenart, Wayne Pyle, Bill Euwer, and student director Lori Stice, the cast of 160 made the performances a total success.

The musical concerns the competition between Curley, a hard working cowboy, and Jud, a hired hand, for the hand of pretty Laurey Williams, the niece of a hearty woman, Aunt Eller.

Laurey won't admit how crazy she is about Curley because she is scared of Jud, who has an extremely bad temper, but at the Box Social Laurey confesses her love for Curley.

In the final scene Jud shows up uninvited at the wedding and a quarrel begins. While trying to kiss the bride, Curley pushes Jud away. Jud attacks Curley with a knife and in the struggle stabs himself. Curley, being innocent, leaves for his honeymoon in the hurry "with the fringe on top."

HEADIN' FOR BROADWAY

1982 was the start of something brand new. That something was the combining of the former New Faces Show and the Variety Show to a show that was bigger and better than any show ever put on before in the Senior High I auditorium. The name of the show was New Faces Plus, with the Plus standing for the dinner-dance that was held prior to the Saturday night, April 3, performance. Members of the orchestra provided the entertainment for this, making the dinner a total success.

The show was also presented April 1 and 2. Masters of Ceremonies Bruce Bishop, Scott Koontz, and Mindy Zelmer introduced various acts that proved to be extremely enjoyable. The acts varied from flaming batons to Cinderella in Space. Both the Senior High I and II Jazz Bands performed and the Swing Choir added a special touch by doing a fantastic finale of songs from the 1940's.

On Sunday, December 13, 1984, the annual Christmas Vespers Program was presented in the Quincy Senior High II Theatre. The program began with the traditional processional and singing of "Come Singing Noel," led by the Women's Choir and Concert Choir. This was followed by a variety of selections performed by the Orchestra and Madrigal Choir. The Quincy High Brass Ensemble highlighted this wonderful Christmas program by playing its traditional prelude. A Christmas spirit was felt throughout the auditorium as the concert ended in the singing of "Silent Night."

Band Council: Ken Smelcer, Annette Tipton, Karen Anderson, Marilyn Franke, Phil Hoffman, Lynn Billeter, Gene David

This year proved to be an extremely busy year for members of both the QHS I and QHS II Jazz Bands. Both bands met on Wednesday nights, with Mr. Eddie Allen being director of the QHS II band and Mr. Paul Duker taking charge of the QHS I band. The jazz bands provided the music at all of the home basketball games, and also provided a special touch at the New Faces show.

The QHS I Jazz Band took a trip to Cincinnati May 28, 29, 30. They played in several towns along the way, with the highlight of the trip being a fun-filled day at Kings Island, an amusement park in Cincinnati.

SGT. PEPPERS LONELY HEARTS CLUB

The 1981-82 Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Eddie Allen, presented three major concerts during the school year which, were the All City Band Festival, Winter Concert, and Spring Concert. The band revived the old tradition of Uncle Waldo's Rubber Band. This band played a variety of music for different organizations and civic groups.

Selling M & M's was the big money-making project. Proceeds were used for a spring tour to Chicago and a trip to Belleville for the I.H.S.A. music contest.

The Varsity Band, under the direction of Mr. Paul Duker, presented four major concerts. The final concert was in May at an ice cream social in the mall at Senior High I.

The band traveled to Kansas City for a day at Worlds of Fun and in April attended a Broadway production at the University of Illinois.

Both the Varsity Band and the Concert Band played during the home Blue Devil games.

OUR SWINGING, SINGING

The 1981-82 school year proved to be extremely successful for the chorus program. The Concert Choir, under the direction of Dan Sherman, recorded their first album. The album, Music of Christmas, featured many favorite Christmas selections with over 1,200 copies being sold. Members of the choir were also active in Oklahoma, Christmas Vespers, New Faces Plus, and the Choral Festival, which included four grade schools, Notre Dame, and Junior High.

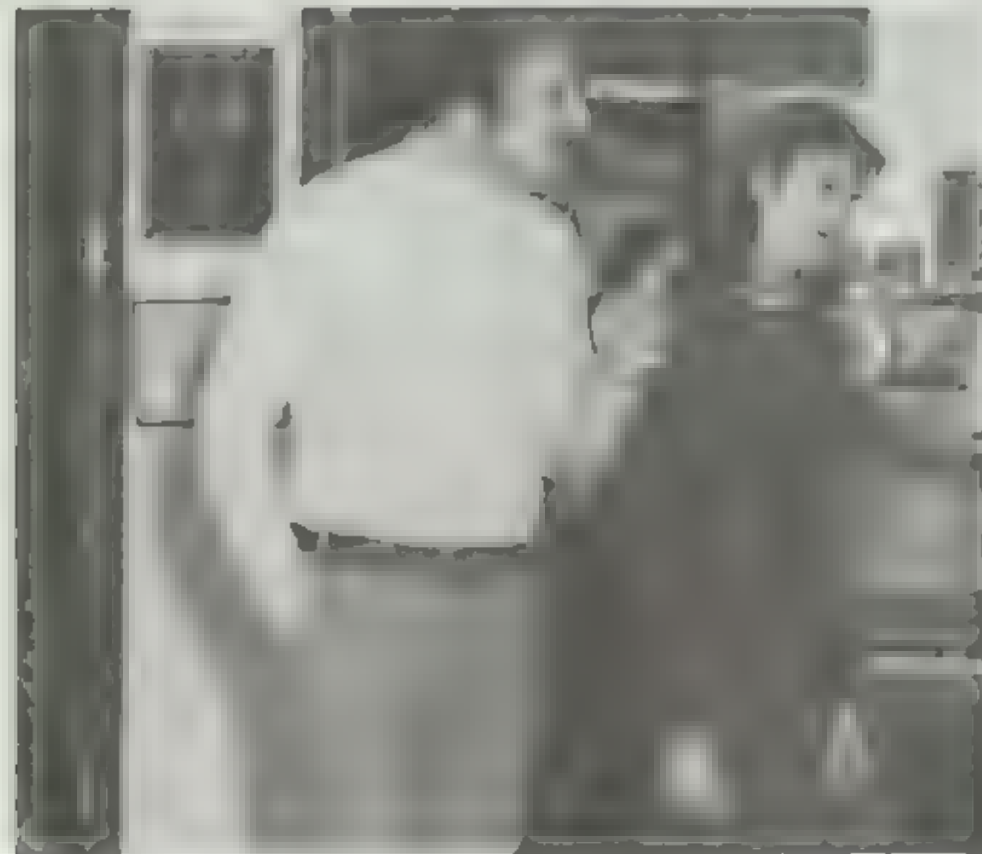

Swing Choir members were kept busy this year by performing for the Illinois Police Chiefs Convention and other functions throughout the community. With the help of Kathy Dooley-Lenart, Choreographer, the Swing Choir presented many enjoyable programs. This was the first year that the Swing Choir entered the IHSA Contest and they received a perfect score. The other members of the choir were also successful, with many receiving perfect ratings. The tour for Concert Choir this year was April 22, 23, and 24. They visited and sang at several high schools in the Chicago area.

THE BAD SEED

The Bad Seed, by Maxwell Anderson, was presented in the Quincy Senior High II auditorium April 29, 30, and May 1. Under the direction of Tom Burnett, Bill Euwer, and student director Cecilia Wagner, the cast of thirteen did a marvelous job.

The scene of the play is the apartment of Col. and Mrs. Penmark and their daughter Rhoda, who is later found out to be the "bad seed." This title is given to her because she has an obsession with killing people, not realizing that it is wrong, but having a good reason for doing it.

The Bad Seed is filled with mystery and suspense and the entire audience was kept sitting on the edge of their chairs until all evidence was revealed as to "who done it."

EXECUTIVE SUITE

"Lights, camera, action . . ." proved to be the motto for the 1981-82 Quippi Staff. Throughout the year the staff busied itself with money-making projects, picture taking, and page deadlines. Although the school year didn't begin until August, Quippi members began work in June. Pam Eberhardt and Debbie Dohm attended a yearbook workshop sponsored by Josten Yearbook Company at Quincy College in June. The workshop proved to be helpful in choosing a theme and in developing layout designs.

Staff members pooled their efforts in August and September to collect "junk" from faculty members. The greatly appreciated faculty donations were sold in the First Quippi Rummage Sale. It proved to be quite successful.

Picture-taking and book sales followed in October and November. Again this year, underclassmen pictures were individual shots instead of group shots. Book sales reached a peak of 1362, topping the contract for 1240 books. Also taking place in October was the Third Annual Powderpuff Football Game. As a result of the cooperation of all participants, the game was a success.

Accompanying the traditional sale of patrons was the selling of Blue Devil coasters. Coasters reading "Go Big Blue" were sold primarily at basketball games. From August to May, staff members called on local businesses to buy patrons to help support the Quippi. Patron sales hit an all time high this year.

Pictorial inside cover pages were revived this year to provide more picture space. A new characteristic of the yearbook was the folio marker. Folio markers appeared at the bottom of each page and included the page number and section name.

To offset the pressure of meeting deadlines, Quippi members enjoyed a few parties throughout the year. Adviser Marian Bee was presented with a gift in appreciation for all her time and work at the Christmas party. The hectic, but fun, year was brought to an end in August with the Annual Quippi Autograph Party.

LITTLE DARLINGS

Practice at 6.00 a.m. every morning this summer surely paid off for both GHS I and II Pom-Pom squads. This past summer all twenty members of the varsity squad sacrificed a great deal in preparation for the eagerly-awaited trip to Illinois Wesleyan's Badgerette Pom-Pom Camp. They came out winners as they accomplished their ultimate goal-winning first place overall! Individual honors went to senior Renee Settle. She was selected as one of the "all-stars" for her leadership abilities. Having won the Miss Badgerette contest, Senior Amy Fessler represented the Illinois Wesleyan session for Miss Badgerette 1981 at the Midwest Invitationals at Aurora, Illinois in August. After attending camp, the girls prepared for their regular season which included half-time performances at varsity football and basketball games, and selected soccer, volleyball, and wrestling games. They also accepted invitations to perform at Payson (Seymour) High School and Springfield High School. Another exciting and memorable performance for the varsity squad was at Kiel Auditorium in which the girls showed the crowd that, along with the Blue Devils, Quincy is number one.

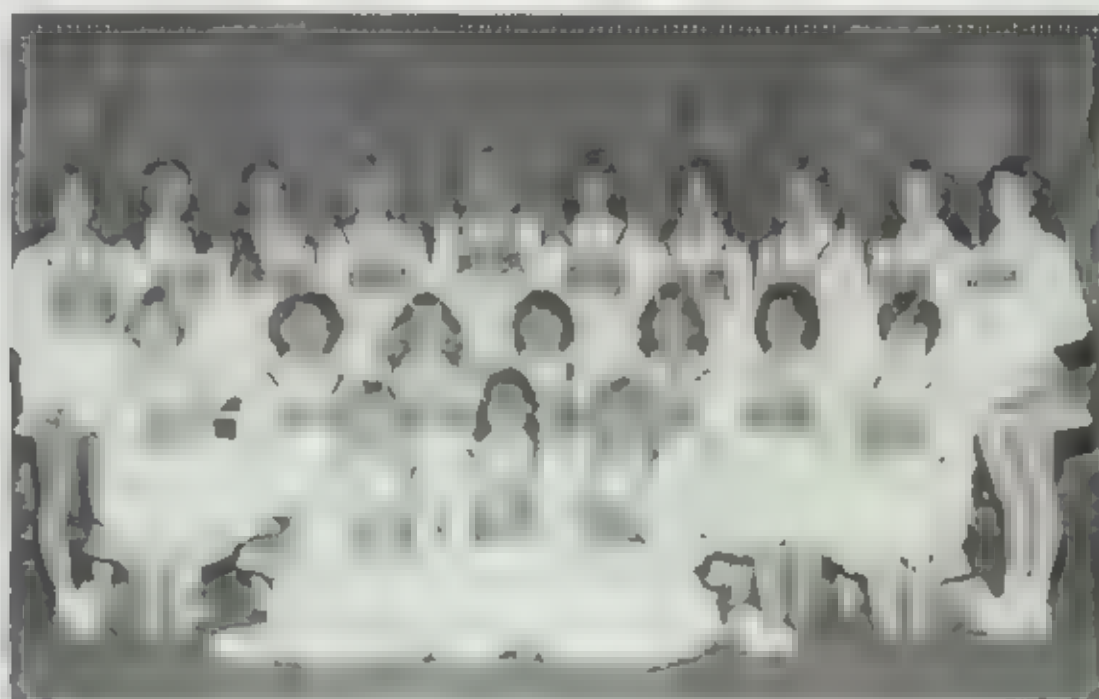

Attending the USCA Pom-Pom Camp at Western Illinois, the J.V. squad tied for first place overall. Included in their winnings were two spirit ribbons and a spirit doll. Individual awards went to Stacey Thompson, Jenny Zander, and Sara Zoller for outstanding abilities. Once again, both squads combined efforts at Christmas time to perform a fantastic flashlight routine. Money-making projects included sales of programs, muppets, weeples, and Valentines Day flowers. Both squads were fortunate to have the sponsorship of Steve and Debby Bradshaw.

THE SWINGING CHEERLEADERS

Summer practice sessions followed by visits to various camps last June and July helped boost the spirit of this year's cheerleading squads. The Varsity Basketball/Soccer cheerleaders returned from Bradley University with the spirit stick and a second place standing in final competition, while the Varsity Football cheerleaders returned from the University of Missouri with the spirit stick and several ribbons. The Junior-Varsity and Freshman squads went to summer camps and also received high honors. Jane Leggett and Debbie Olson, sponsors of the squads, helped organize money making projects in order for the squads to purchase new uniforms. Other projects included a babysitting service during the Holiday Gift Show and a cheerleading clinic for future Devil cheerleaders.

RULING CLASS

SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL

The Senior Class Council of 1981-82 consisted of approximately sixty students. The officers were elected by the student body. This year's advisory board consisted of Sue Benz, John Bitter, Debbie Dohm, Sharon Hall, and Kathy Kenady. Their sponsor was Mr. Michael Hennessy. The Senior Class Council took on many responsibilities. At homecoming, the council sponsored a spirit parade and a spirit contest with the juniors, in which the seniors won. At Halloween the council made and sold caramel apples at school, and a Christmas party was held for the handicapped children who attend QHS II. The council also went Christmas caroling and presented a Christmas album, made by the QHS Concert Choir, to the Lincoln Hill Nursing Home. On February 24, the council sponsored an Adult Visitation Day open to anyone interested in seeing the school. The adults went to classes with a member of the Senior Class Council. Helping with the March 16 school tax referendum was of great importance to the class council. For added support, several members passed out literature about the referendum in neighborhoods. Money-making projects included coat checks at home basketball games and the sale of Senior Class T-shirts. All profits made from these projects went toward the Senior Prom and a gift from the Class of '82 to the school.

... AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

JUNIOR CLASS COUNCIL

The Junior Class Council held meetings this year with Lance Vardaman presiding as president. Other officers were Sondi Campbell as vice-president, Jill Wolfmeyer as secretary, and Janet Anderson as treasurer. Mr. Jerry Cripe sponsored the Junior Class Council. Moneymaking projects took place throughout the school year to help raise money for the Junior/Senior Reception, a dance held at the end of the school year which the Junior Class sponsors as a present to the graduating Senior Class. Projects included working coat checks on the nights of home basketball games along with the Senior Class Council, selling "QHS" key-chains and custom made Valentine buttons, and making Devil cookies to sell during lunch hours. Council members also participated in informing the community on the tax referendum. A Blue Devil Victory Dance was held by the Council to welcome home the basketball players from the State Tournament in Champaign. "Overall, the year went well for the Junior Class Council and many projects were accomplished," commented Sondi Campbell.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN QHS I STUDENT COUNCIL

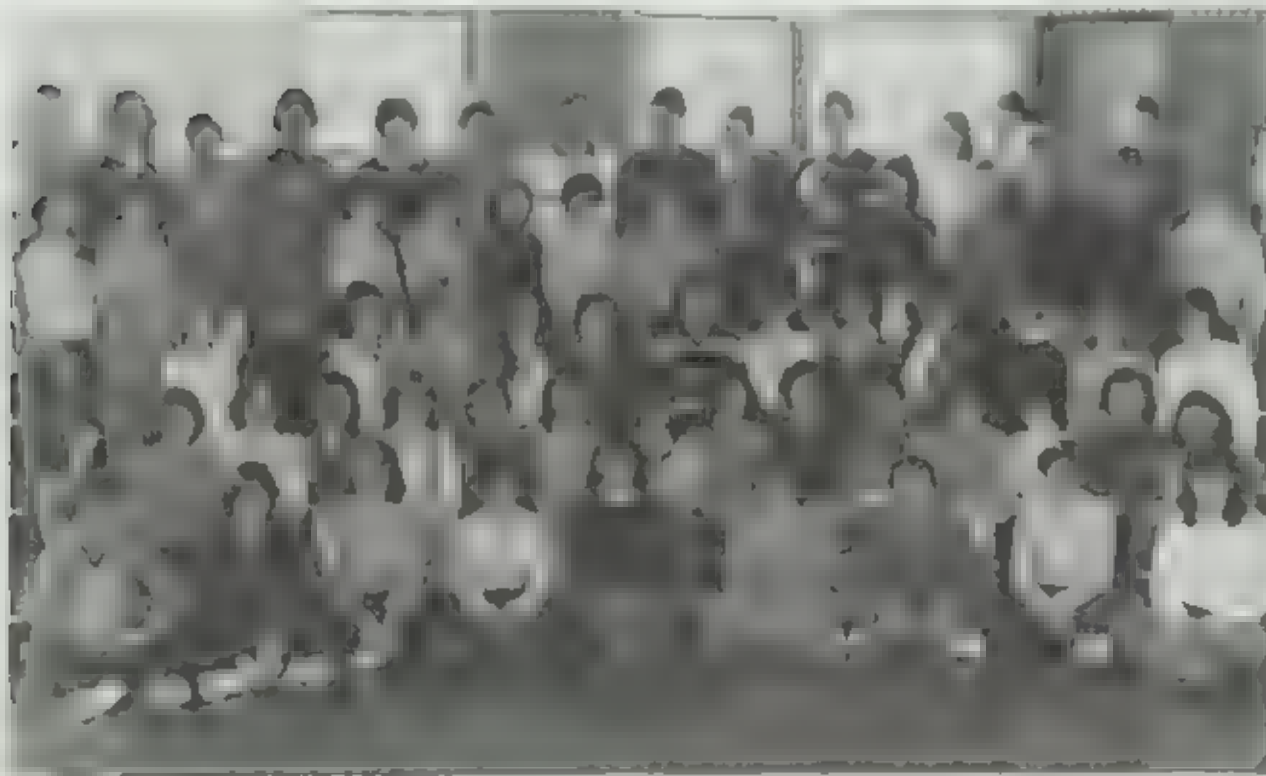

The QHS I Student Council was very active this year. Its main responsibilities were being of service to the school, raising money, and providing enjoyment for the students and teachers. Many fund-raising activities were planned such as selling buttons, t-shirts, sweatshirts, pennants, memo boards, Christmas corsages, Valentine flowers, candy, balloons, and spirit tags. With all of these projects, the council earned nearly $2000.

In serving the school and community, the QHS I Student Council sent key chains to the teachers at Christmas and sent birthday cards also. Council members planned a clean up day, cleaned garbage cans, and helped rally for 'yes' votes toward the school referendum. They also donated clothes, food, and toys to the needy at Christmas time, gave to the Muscular Dystrophy fund, attended various student council conventions, and visited other schools as student council guests.

The council provided many opportunities for fun and enjoyment. The council bought a Christmas tree and decorations, which were displayed in the round room. They participated in decorating for the Homecoming Dance, planned a Sweetheart Dance, and held a computer dating service. They also held some exciting assemblies, and a Christmas party for council members with homemade refreshments. Special activities included a Spirit Week with the highlight of this being a Freshman Servant Day, and a "Good-bye Senior High I barbeque" at the end of the year. Mrs. Vicky Brown again served as the adviser. She was assisted by Mr. John Westhoff and Mr. Paul Duker.

The Quincy Senior High I Pep Club enthusiastically supported the Devils this year. A $2.00 membership fee was a prerequisite for joining the club. Each member received a special pep club button and a Blue Devil bumper sticker. As the basketball Devils advanced to post-season play, pep club members riding the fan buses received discount prices. Serving as pep club sponsor was Mr. George Nelson.

INTERNSHIP

Under the advisement of Mr. Jerry Cripe, an internship program was launched at Quincy High this year. Students could either work with the state government or the local government. Choosing to work with the state government, Jesse Winters and Tricia Gibbs resided with a Springfield family and worked in a legislative office four days a week and attended class one day a week. Bill Feld worked with a local government five afternoons a week and attended classes at Quincy High in the mornings. All three students participated in the program for one semester. The program was outstanding for those interested in government.

THE FRENCH CONNECTION

FRENCH-LATIN CLUB

The French-Latin Club was once again an active part of Quincy Senior High. This year's activities began with the election of the club officers. Chosen were Renee Burghart, President; Heather Brickman, Vice-president, Greg Clucker, Secretary; and Kevin Johnson, Treasurer. Mr. John Westhoff repeated his role as club sponsor. Members of the club pooled their efforts to sell candy as their annual fund raising project. Proceeds were combined to finance a trip to Six Flags in early June. Competing in the State Latin contest were Greg Clucker, Alan Gehrich, Brett Klay, Andy Martin, and Lisa Becker.

GERMAN CLUB

Once again, German students took an active role in the 1981-1982 school year at QHS I and II. Money making projects included the sale of M&M's and Gummibären imported from Germany, both of which were profitable. Proceeds from the candy sales helped finance many projects which were on the club's agenda. Included in these plans were funding for scholarships for the exchange students and language competition. Other profits went toward various social activities of the club such as Halloween and Christmas parties and an end of the year awards banquet. Also on the agenda this year was a return trip to two language competitions. Students from levels I, II, III, and IV participarticipated in the Foreign Language Competition in Macomb and students from levels II and V also competed at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Since 1975 German students have participated in the Quincy-Bremen exchange program as an annual event. This year representing Quincy were Sue Eisehorst, Doug Klein, Stephanie Guthrie, Shawn Hagmeier and Martin Wagner. Students representing Bremen, Germany included Udo Ahlers, Edgardis Garin and Joerg Rotermund. Helping to teach German students second semester as a student teacher was Miss Ann Engelmeyer.

THE ADVENTURES OF CHICO AFS

The AFS Club was sponsored by Mrs. Signe Oakley and Steve Cooper. The club hosted two foreign students in America during the '81-'82 school year: Ann Marie Larsson from Sweden, and Luis Acuna from Costa Rica. Heather Menke was a Quincy candidate chosen to travel abroad during the summer. The club made money by holding bake sales in the school cafeteria during lunches. Mrs. Oakley hopes that the AFS Club will become more popular and that more students will join for next year.

SPANISH CLUBS I AND II

Spanish Clubs I and II were sponsored this year by Mrs. Karen Witter, Mrs. Alice Distenhorst, and Mrs. Cathy McClain.

Spanish Club I students sold candy in order to raise money for a trip to Six Flags in the spring. Spanish Club II students used their own money to finance a trip to Casa Galard's, a Mexican restaurant in St. Louis.

Each class elected two or three members to act as representatives for the club. This group planned most of the club's activities. Any student in a Spanish class could become a member of Spanish Club.

CHAPTER TWO

BETA CLUB

This was the first year for the Beta Club of Quincy High. The organization enjoys national prestige and accepts students who truly excel in scholarship, leadership, and character. The members pay an eight dollar national fee and one dollar for local dues. Some of the accomplishments of the QHS Beta Club were the making of school pride signs, the changing of the school sign at 3rd and Maine, assisting the tutoring of preschoolers, and work on the restoration of the John Wood Mansion.

The major project for the first year of the club was selling pizzas. The club members made the pizzas themselves and then delivered them. The profits were used to purchase new food trays for Meals on Wheels and scholarships for the "College for Kids."

This year's officers were Phil Garrison, President; Janet Anderson, Vice-President; Sarah Conroy, Recording Secretary, Missy McKelvie, Corresponding Secretary; and Allison Dennis, Treasurer. Committee chairmen included: George Crickard, Public Relations; David Shih, Community Projects; Denette Cashman, School Projects; Lynn Billeter, Membership; and Sara Thomas, Entertainment. Dr. Robert Dittmer was the club's advisor.

Mrs. Emma Lou Arida founded and has advised English Society for four years. The club was organized for students having an interest in live theatre, literature, and films. The year started with a banquet when the club had a British-style tea party complete with scones. Christmas caroling was once again enjoyed by all. Members of English Society were encouraged to attend the Writing Workshop held at QHS II early in March. An old book sale was also planned this year. Some of the members went to Champaign and Springfield for shopping, eating, visiting the Krannert Center, and viewing "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." The club operated under flexible conditions so there were no officers elected.

THE TIME MACHINE COMPUTER CLUB

This year's Computer Club was organized by Mr. Tom Deters as an informal group of high school students who either had a class of computer programming last year or had previous computer knowledge. The basic function of the club was to keep all who were concerned up to date on the new founded aspects of computing and to offer any extra assistance necessary to the regular computer programming classes held during the day. Highlights of this year's activities included hardware and Z80 classes. The club members also took a field trip to St.

Computer Club — Row 1: Jean Soebbing, Jay Humphrey, Tom Deters. Row 2: Greg Haab, Greg Kirsch, Ken Smelcer. Row 3: Rick [Name obscured], [Name obscured], [Name obscured].

Louis to attend a seminar concerning the Z8000, one of the newer and more powerful microprocessor chips. Most of the computer club members also assisted Mr. Deters in his teaching by writing tutorial programs which were to be used as learning exercises in the regular computer classes. Members also learned how to use word processors and various disk operating systems. Mr. Deters also added as a thank you to the club: "The Computer Club members have been very helpful to me this year."

HISTORY CLUB

The History Club of Quincy Senior High II completed its first year successfully. Mr. Walter Waggoner, a history teacher, served as club sponsor. Elected as Co-Presidents were Andi Brown and Lisa Hemming. Other officers included Treasurer, Bill Feld, and Secretary, Lynn Billeter. Main attractions of this year included outside speakers discussing different important events in our Nation's history and movies, along with bake sales and other fund raising projects. The year concluded with a field trip to Chicago in April. Since the History Club was quite successful in its trial run, Mr. Waggoner hopes to continue making progress in the coming year.

THE CORPORATION JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement, this year, involved high school students from Quincy, Liberty, and Payson. They met on Tuesday and Wednesday nights from seven o'clock until nine o'clock. Junior Achievement is designed to help high school students learn how a corporate business is run. Throughout the year they made and sold different types of products. At the end of the year they wrote an annual report to inform the stockholders of the company's progress and financial status.

This year there were five companies that were sponsored by different industries in the Quincy area. They were: The Chain Gang sponsored by Electric Wheel, M & R Trap Maker sponsored by Moorman's, JA Tron sponsored by Harris, Sunco sponsored by Gardner Denver, and Junior Colt sponsored by Colt Industries. The JA Director this year was Mr. Raymond Roidl.

LIBRARY CLUB

1981-82 was a good year for Senior High I and II Library Clubs. The members enrolled in the club as if it were a class and went to the library for an hour each day to work. Some of the members' duties were delivering, setting up, and operating equipment for teachers, shelving materials, and working at the circulation desk. The adviser of the QHS I club was Miss Beth Young and at QHS II, Mr. Jim Hanson.

GRAPHIC ARTS

Graphic Arts-Row 1: Julie Felton, Nancy Thompson, Jill Felt, and Linda Hines. Row 2: Mr. Murphy, Sponsor, Bill Echelbarger, Steve Paden, Jeff Johnson, Jeff Hamby, and Jim Crumley.

Graphic Arts Club had a busy year, with a year-long fund raising activity and donating work to a benefit dance.

The President of the club was Jill Felton. Vice-President was Steve Paden, and Jeff Hamby presided as Treasurer. The eighteen members of the club used the skills they learned in class and applied them to various projects.

The major fund raising project of the year was the making and selling of buttons. They made buttons for the Blue Devils, St. Patrick's Day, the Athletic Department, surrounding county schools, and various school clubs and organizations. They printed materials for the Kelly Bentley Benefit Dance. The money they made paid for a Christmas party and an end-of-the-year party. Also, they took a field trip to a paper mill in Taylorville.

The students benefited from the experience they received from being members of the club and they also provided much creative material for fellow students.

WECEP

WECEP (Work Experience and Career Exploration Program) is designed for students who would like to work part-time and go to school part-time. They must have a bank account and must put part of their check into their account. This year WECEP had many guest speakers and even went to State Street Store to learn about job interviews. At the end of the year they had a banquet where the employers were invited. Wendy Miller was chosen as WECEP student-of-the-year.

MEDICAL CAREERS

The Medical Careers Club had a busy year, meeting once every two weeks at 7:30 A.M. Twenty members were involved in club activities, with Bobbi Howard serving as President, Julie McCollum as Vice-President, and Kim Proske presiding as Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Fran Youtzy served as sponsor.

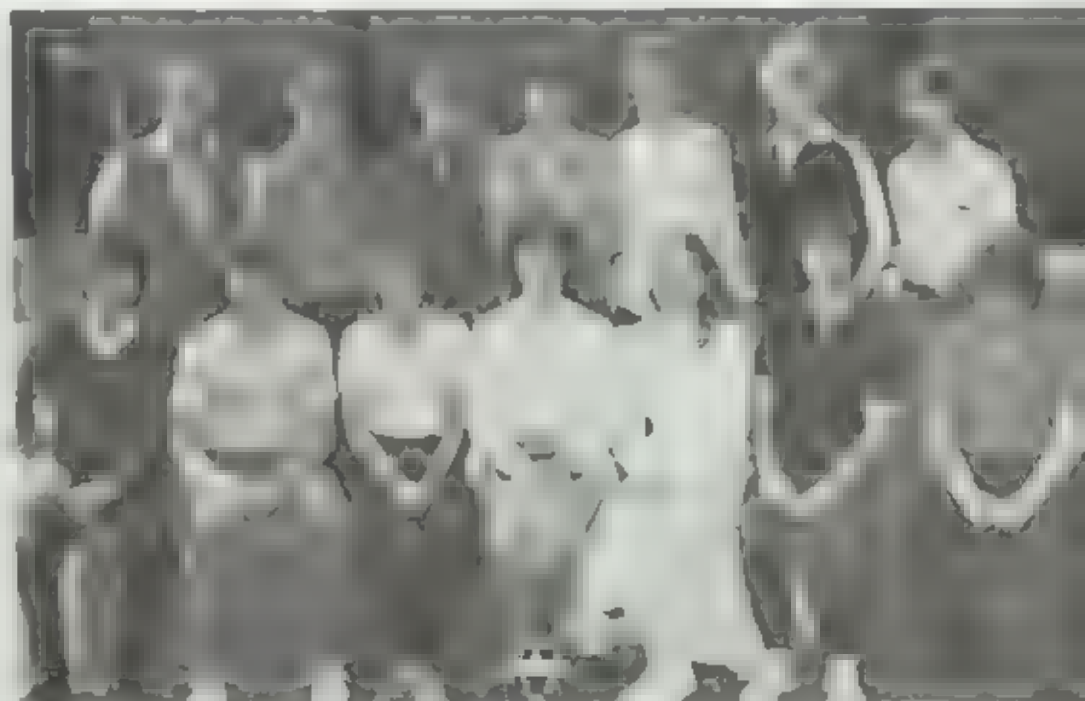

The club had bake sales and sold candy for fund raising activities. With the money earned, they planned an end-of-the-year trip to either Chicago to see the Medical exhibit at the Museum of Science and Industry or to Springfield to visit the SIU Medical School exhibit and St. John's Hospital. Also, several speakers from the Allied Health Fields spoke in class situations. The club had a very educating and profitable year.

THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH TEAMS

On February 17, 1982, several Quincy Senior High students participated in TEAMS Academic Competition at John Wood Community College. TEAMS stands for Testing in Engineering and Applied Math and Science. Students tested competitively in Biology, Chemistry, Engineering Graphics, English, Math and Physics. Quincy automatically won the class AA competition. In overall competition, David Glessner placed first in both chemistry and physics, Eric Mast took second place in both chemistry and Engineering Graphics, Rich Houseweart took first place in Engineering Graphics, Brian Eisbernd placed third in English and Rick Kirkpatrick took third place in chemistry. Quincy advanced to regional competition at SIU — Edwardsville on March 6. David Glessner again placed first in chemistry finishing among the top ten chemistry students in the state.

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

Private Enterprise Day is a joint activity involving the students and faculty of QHS, local businesses and industries, and the Quincy Area Chamber of Commerce. The primary purpose of Private Enterprise Day is to provide high school juniors and seniors with an opportunity to gain a better understanding of business activity in our economic system. Students involved in this activity spent the day with top-level executives from participating businesses discussing and observing strategic economic concepts at work in the marketplace. Students are treated to lunch by their business hosts, which provides an atmosphere for students and community leaders to gain a better understanding of each other. Private Enterprise Day was held both semesters and allowed approximately 60 students to participate. A special thank-you to the area businesses that participated in Private Enterprise Days, 1981-82: Bake Agri-Service, Berghers, Cummins Engine Company, Dame & Hurdle Jewelers, Electric Wheel, First National Bank, Gardner Denver (Cooper Ind.), Hansen-Spear Funeral Home, Harris Industries, Illinois State Bank, Manpower Temporary Service, Moormans, Quincy Park District, Sears, State Street Bank, WGEM, Blessing Hospital, Broadcast Electronics, Penneys, Quincy Clinic, Quincy Compressor (Colt Ind.), Quincy Peoples Savings & Loan, Quintron, State Street Store, CIPS, Illinois Bell Telephone, and Mercantile Bank.

VOICES

The Varsity Quiz Bowl had another great season. They ended it with a 13-1 record, not including the Hillsboro competition in May. They won first place in these important tournaments: W&M, Wenona Invitational-consolation division, and Kirkville NMSJ Invitational. The record for the three previous seasons and most of this season was 71-5. The team's coach was Miss Beth Young.

QUIZ BOWL

The Quiz Bowl intramurals involved over twenty students. They competed in round robin tournaments this year. The winner of the fall tournament was the OFF team: Martin Wagner, Greg Kirsch, and Neville Orban. The winner of the spring tournament was The Aces team: Jay Carter, Mike Petersen, and Mike Stewart. The tournaments were supervised by Miss Beth Young.

THE PRODUCERS
QHS I PRODUCTION COMPANY

In its final year of existence, the QHS I Production Company once again filled its role as back stage coordinator. Approximately sixty students interested in sound equipment or just the production of a play joined together to form the company. The Production Company set the stage for such performances as "Oklahoma" and "New Faces Plus" which were both major attractions put on by QHS students. Also included in their work were smaller tasks such as setting up the audio equipment for assemblies and PTA meetings. In the words of Mr. Joe Westbrook, the company's advisor, "If it wasn't for the Production Company, there wouldn't be such a thing as an 'Oklahoma' or a 'New Faces'." One of the high points of this year was a field trip to the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts in Champaign, Illinois. While there, the students toured the Center and became familiar with the production of a major play.

Candy and candle campaign sales were the means of raising about $1500 for this year's QHS II Work Study students. The funds raised went toward the annual field trips to Six Flags and Chicago. Work Study II students journeyed to Six Flags the week before Halloween. On the way back, a special stop was made at a pumpkin patch where miles of pumpkins could be seen. This year's Chicago trip was taken in the spring and was planned to be an overnight excursion. Also included in the year's activities was the annual luncheon for the graduating Work Study students. The Work Study program at QHS I also had a full year. Most field trips taken were localized, however, an overnight camping trip to Camp Callahan was arranged. Other activities scheduled for this year included cross country skiing at Westview Golf Course and roller skating.

A STAR IS BORN WRESTLERETTES

This year more girls than ever before became involved in Wrestlerettes. This group was open for any QHS I or II girl interested in assisting the wrestling program. The girls provided support and enthusiasm for the wrestlers at the home meets as well as the away ones. Several of the girls worked in the concession stand during home meets and also worked as runners and table assistants. For added support, Wrestlerettes sold "Wrestlers Need Love, Too!" bumper stickers and Blue Devil buttons along with conducting a raffle at the Quincy Invitational. Proceeds went toward the wrestling program. Lynn White held the office of President while Misti Powell and Ann Laurence shared the position of Treasurer. Mrs. Jill Schultz acted as sponsor.

Mr. Tom Burnett was the sponsor of this year's Theatre Guild and Thespians. Elections for officers took place early in the year with Daria Walton claiming the Presidency. Kelle Juette took the role of Secretary while Debbie Corrello and Lori Stice were the Guild's Historians. The Theater Guild and Thespians were busy this year organizing activities that were shared with the rest of Quincy High. One of these activities was a student directed play while another was the performance of skits and plays for little children. Also on this year's agenda was a trip to Western Illinois University to attend a professionally performed drama. An annual picnic was held at the end of the year to honor the Guild members and to pass out awards.

Future Farmers of America (FFA) is designed to provide an education in agriculture to those interested.

The Quincy FFA Chapter began the 1981-82 season in September with an Officers Leadership Training School in Barry. The officers this year who attended were Mike Holloway, President; Matt Pieper, Vice-President; Paul Holtschlag, Secretary; Eddie Obert, Treasurer; Dennis Dempsey, Reporter; and Tom Huber, Sentinel.

The FFA members participated in many activities and events throughout the year. Some of these were the Land Use Judging Contest at the Orr Research Center in Perry in October, the Grain Judging Contest in Pittsfield, and the National FFA Convention in Kansas City in November. Also, the Parliamentary Procedure Contest, a Public Speaking Contest in Rushville, the Section FFA Awards at Griggsville, Ag-Days at the Quincy Mall, the District Public Speaking Contest at Macomb, the District FFA Awards in Jacksonville, and in June, the State FFA Convention in Urbana. As a money-making project the members had a FFA fruit sale at Christmas time.

The 28 members held their meetings the first Wednesday of each month. Mr. Norbert Pohlman was the adviser again this year.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

The Distributive Education Club of America (DECA) is composed of students who participate in the Distributive Education program. It is a national organization which was developed for the purpose of encouraging leadership, civic consciousness, vocational awareness, and social intelligence; and to provide students with a greater understanding of the fields of marketing, merchandising, and management.

In October, eight students attended a regional DECA meeting held at Illinois State University. In November, three students attended the Student Executive Conference in Chicago. In May, the students held a banquet for their employers, parents, and friends. This is always a special occasion for all involved.

Distributive Education students are employed on a cooperative basis by retailing and marketing businesses in the community. The display in the showcase on the second floor of the vo-Tech Center is an example of the work of some of the DECA students. Mr. McKeive was advisor this year.

Row 3: Dave Pillars, Mike Cane, Mark Walbring, Tim Scott, Kent Kite, Garrett Maynor, Butch Niehoff.

This year's Welding Club was again sponsored by Harold Willis and Robert Paul. Some of the activities this year included repairing and salvaging scrap metal and building their own metal building. Profits from some of these services enabled the club to finance field trips to area industries. From these, the members were able to observe welding and machine techniques as actually performed by the production line method. The club had one-hundred members.

WEBC

WEBC is the radio station of Q.H.S. II. This year WEBC got off to a great start with a full hour a day show. They played a variety of music, from Ronnie Milsap to Bruce Springsteen and Journey.

The crew consisted of Darla Walton as manager, Jim Whitfield as asst. manager, Todd Ayers, Kathy Wellman, and Tim Scherrer. The radio club, better known as WEBC, was sponsored by Tom Burnett.

AFRO-AMERICAN CLUB

Once again the Afro-American Club had a good year. The club tries to bring about an awareness of what the business world is like and how different clubs operate. The meetings are run in a business-like manner. They elect officers and appoint members to serve on committees for the purpose of looking into new activities. This year's officers were Penny Lewis, President; Jafara Lewis, Vice-President; Kathy Conley, Treasurer; and Rhonna Douglas, Secretary. The club kept busy throughout the year sponsoring dances and bake sales. Mr. Anders was the advisor this year.

ART CLUB I AND II

The Art Club had a full year of activities with various design contests, a trip to Kansas City, and a few parties. The sponsor for the club, Dave Brown, along with Leroy Schwann, took a few students on a three day trip to Kansas City in April. There the students visited the Kansas City Art Institute and Hallmark. They were taken on tours of both places and had a chance to observe students and artists at work. The club displayed much of their art work throughout the school cafeteria, library, and show cases. Some artwork was also displayed in the Board of Education and Chamber of Commerce.

This was the first year for the Art Club at Senior High I. The club met every Monday and worked on many projects for the school. They made banners for the Blue Devils at Homecoming and for various other games. They also made excellent posters at Christmas time and Springtime. The club's advisor was Mr. Westbrook.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

Back in 1957, Quincy had the experience of opening the new public high school. The first day was a quiet and memorable day for the students and faculty who attended. Now in 1982, Quincy has experienced the closing of this same school. The day was as quiet and memorable for those attending as it was in 1957. However, the mood was that of sadness instead of the excitement and confusion that was felt when it opened. On June 4, 1982, a small ceremony was held at the end of the school day. Three Boy Scouts from Troop 6 lowered the flag and presented it to former principal R. S. Lockman. Also present was Ed Schroeder, a long-time custodian. Jack Tanner, a retiring teacher this year, played taps and Auld Lang Syne on his trumpet for the event. The building will have many uses next year. Special education preschool, the unwed mothers program, driver education, a few shop classes, Head Start, Woodland Home for girls school, and one half a day of gym classes will continue. The gym will also be used for the Blue Devil home basketball games. However, 80 percent of the building will be closed. Many people will miss the building, and changes will have to be made.

SEMI-TOUGH

The beginning was good — the ending was better — but somewhere in the middle things tended to falter. True, the 1981 Quincy Senior High football season was full of ups and downs, but was not without many memories that will last for years to come.

Lack of consistency was one of the main drawbacks to the Devils' 2-8 campaign, but both the offense and defense had memorable moments at one time or another. The Devils' defense limited high scoring Alcorn to a mere 6 points one autumn evening and Brad Schrader kicked a 42 yard field goal against East Moline. The Quincy gridgers managed to end the season on a high note by defeating arch-rival Quincy Notre Dame in a wild and woolly affair, 28-21.

Many players received post-season honors for stellar play throughout the season. Outstanding receiver Scott Creech was voted All-Conference, Ironically, as a defensive back. Brad Schrader was named as the top Western Big Six place kicker and both Brian Aden and Shane Barnes received honorable mention team honors went to Aden for Most Valuable Lineman, to Creech for Most Valuable Back, and to Kevin Glosemeyer for Most Improved. Running back Todd Moore received the Golden Helmet Award. Mr. Jim Schultz completed his first year as head varsity grid coach.

The QHS sophomore football squad had quite a successful fall campaign. The Devil sophs compiled a 4-5 regular season mark and finished second in the WB6 with a 3-2 record. Mr. Ron Karopp served as head coach and Mr. Bob Bush and Mr. Kerry Sanders were the assistants.

The freshman gridgers struggled through a 1-5 season. Head coach was Mr. Jim Kaiser and Mr. Dale Hendren assisted.

VICTORY

The theory that experienced veterans provide the backbone of a team definitely did not apply to the 1981-82 Quincy High soccer team. The Devil kickers' hopes rested on the shoulders of many unproved underclassmen, but they proved the critics wrong and came through with flying colors. Though the season ended abruptly with a first round district loss to Quincy Notre Dame, the season was more than successful. The Devils defeated many highly respected teams and played even with three state finalists during a 13-6 season.

Junior Jim Sandercock received the award for Most Valuable Player for the season. Junior Roger Wilson, already a three year starter, led the team in goals scored, assists and was chosen Most Valuable Offensive Player, along with winning the Golden Toe award. Juniors Jim Bruce and Greg Shierling shared the Most Valuable Defensive Player award and sophomore Darren Mueller was voted Most Improved. Sandercock was also the recipient of the Dr. Sandercock Memorial award. Mr. Dick Stewart again served as head coach with Mr. George Nelson and Mr. John Schreider returning as his assistants.

With only three players lost to graduation, the 1982-83 QHS soccer team is already being called a favorite to bring the state championship trophy from the South! Last year they were a year away, now, the Devils have arrived!

CADDYSHACK

The 1981-82 Devil golfers finished their campaign with an impressive 7-1 dual meet record. Though the team consisted mainly of underclassmen, the Quincy swingers exploded out of the gate winning their first 6 dual meets without a loss. The Devils also captured first place in their own Quincy High Invitational for the first time in many years. Dave Fisher, Matt Delaney, and Todd Schork consistently placed at the top of each meet while Tom Drennan, Sam Snowden, and Tom Wensing provided strong support.

Dave Fisher received the award for Lowest Stroke Average (37.4). Todd Schork won the Sportsmanship Award while Tom Wensing was voted Most Improved. Mr. Don Kelley served as coach.

With four letter winners returning next year, the 1982-83 golf season looks bright. The Devil swingers could gain a state tournament birth and maybe even bring back some hardware.

WINNING

This year's golf team under the coaching of Larry Kunz, concluded their season with a five win, four loss dual match record. Their tournament records show impressive first place finishes in the Western Big Six Tournament, Quincy Invitational, District Tournament, and Sectional Tournament, and a third place finish in the sixteen team Champaign Centennial Tournament. They ended their season with a seventh place finish in the IHSA Girls' Golf State Tournament. Individually, Val Brennan placed ninth and Lori Pruitt placed twelfth.

The Devil girls went against Quincy Notre Dame in three dual matches resulting in two wins and one loss by only a two stroke decision.

Awards were given at the end of the season with Val Brennan receiving Lowest Average, Chris Sullivan and Jane Scheip both winning Most Improved, and the Sportsmanship award was given to Chris Sullivan. The team consisted of seniors Lori Pruitt and Chris Sullivan, along with sophomores Jane Scheip, Lucy McReynolds and Val Brennan.

A SMASHING TIME

The volleyball team completed their season with 12 wins and 18 losses. Coached by John Koscielski, the varsity team achieved much this year by winning the Macomb Districts and reaching the Peoria Sectionals. The JV team ended with a 8-5 record under Coach Debbie Rouths.

During the season the team took fourth place finishes in the Quincy Invitational Tournament and the Jacksonville Invitational Tournament. Midway through the season they experienced a streak of losses and by changing their offense from a 5-1 to a 4-2 brought about a strong finish. Entering into the Macomb Districts seeded fourth, they triumphed over top seeded Galesburg and went on to beat Macomb High to win first place at Districts. Advancing to the Peoria Sectionals, the team unfortunately concluded the season by losing just barely to Peoria High.

Penny Lewis, after a three week absence due to an injury in the Quincy Notre Dame Invitational, was voted Most Valuable Player. Heidi Helhake earned the Service Award, and Deanne Plonka was given the award for Most Assists. The varsity players received Q letters, the sophomores received their 84 numerals, and the freshmen were given freshmen patches.

Seniors graduating this year are Becky Zoler, Veronica Nixon, Penny Lewis, and Heidi Helhake.

Here's to our volleyball team of '81!
 Even with losses we still had fun
 You enjoyed the season and did your best though there were nights we failed
 the test
 But long after your high school days are gone, your memories of winning the District will linger on
 So to Heidi, 'Ronnie, Becky, and Penny
 next year you'll know, we'll miss you plenty
 But to juniors Plonka, Jody, Terri, and Gwen,
 you'll be back to help us win You'll have help from the sophomores too
 for they will be juniors just like you 'Cause Angie, Tammy, Pam, and LuAnne will be there doing the best they can
 And Kelly, the frosh, exposed to the team,
 by playing on the Varsity, fulfilled
 her dream
 Then all the J V 's that were with Coach Routh, will be there to give the Varsity a push
 To Coach "K", leader of the Big Blue
 from all of us we say thank you Because the coach can't bump, set or bing just to help the team to do their thing
 Coach Connie Kelly, we thank you

ACROSS THE GREAT DIVIDE

The 1981-82 Quincy High Cross Country team ran to an excellent 11-1 dual meet record. The only loss of the season came at the hands of a tough Hannibal team by a mere five points. The Devil harriers also did well in every invitational they were entered and finished fourth in the Western Big Six conference.

Boys' captain, Jim Powell, shared the Most Valuable award with sophomore Darrin Bishop. Bishop also had the most summer miles for boys by running 1000 in the off season.

Girls Co-captain, Anne Ogle, made her third straight appearance in the state finals and received the girls' Most Valuable award. Co-captain, Sue Resch, ran for the most summer miles for girls with 47.1. Angelo Rinchluso again served as coach of the squad.

"Union Jacks! Union Jacks!"

This was the familiar cry that rang through the QHS II gymnasium at 10:20 p.m. on the night of May 12, 1982. The Union Jacks, led by the relentless net play of goalie John Bitter, had just captured first place in the 1982 Floor Hockey Championship Tournament. The second place Outlaws, early-season favorites to take the crown, played a hard-fought game, but ran out of gas in the third period as the "U.J.'s" closed out a 7-5 triumph.

This year's floor hockey league proved to be the most exciting and superbly-played season that can be remembered. Many players showed expertise in floor play that has yet to be displayed in seasons past.

In the third place game, the Warlords outlasted the Delta "9" in overtime 2-1, in a highly-contested defensive battle. And in the fifth place contest, the Keg Killers took revenge on the Chiefs, 4-2.

Tony Barnard of the Warlords was voted Most Valuable in the White division and Robbie Tipton of the Avalanche was chosen MVP of the Blue division. Rick Edmundson of the Union Jacks reigned Most Valuable over the entire league. Mr. Bob DeVries again served as head chairman of floor hockey and Mr. Ron Rush, Mr. Bob Bisser, and Mr. Dick Bartlett served as referees.

CHAMPIONS

There were a few skeptics that thought the 1981-82 Blue Devil basketball season would be anti-climatic to the championship season of a year ago. These few people couldn't have been more wrong. In fact, this year's campaign may have been more exciting than any other. Once again, for the third time in four years, the Devils led an entourage of Quincy fans to Champaign-Urbana and again came home with a piece of hardware. It may have been the third place trophy instead of the first, but in the end that didn't seem to matter. After living through a heavily anticipated 64-game record winning streak, what more could the team and the Quincy fans ask for?

This year the season started in Chicago and the Devils barely kept their winning streak alive, playing without the Douglas brothers, they escaped with a nailbiting 65-63 victory over Chicago Weber. The team then breezed through their own Thanksgiving Tournament and, after running over other early season opponents, it came time for the "showdown in St. Louis." The Devils were to meet Missouri powerhouse, St. Louis DeSmet, but they were up to the challenge and pulled off a six point victory in Kier Auditorium. After winning a fourth-straight Pontiac Tournament, the Quincy hoopsters swept through the rest of the regular season, which included a second consecutive 10-0 Western Big Six title. While all this was happening, The Devils were fastly approaching the record winning streak of 58 games set by Dalton Thornridge a decade earlier.

The Devils were the favorites to take the "AA" crown again as the tournament started, but that was distant from all the minds of Quincy fans and team members alike. If the Devils won their first Regional game, they would break the win-streak record. Both the record and another trip to Champaign were almost lost at the same time as upset-minded Chatham-Glenwood played their slow-down game to perfection, the Devils won 36-32 in a true heart-stopper! The Devils then defeated Jacksonville in spectacular fashion for the Regional title, and then easily disposed of Springfield Griffin and Lincoln in the Sectionals. Then came the Super-Sectional against much improved and highly regarded Danville. It was a tight contest all the way, but a strong fourth quarter surge carried the Devils to a 80-63 triumph. Again, it was on to Champaign for another title chase and Quincy, especially Bruce Douglas, seemed up to the task as they thrashed Lisle Benet Academy in the Quarterfinals 65-45. Then came the Semifinal game that will live forever in the memories of all Blue Devil fans. The opponent was Chicago Mendel Catholic, a strong adversary, and the Devils didn't seem to be on their game. Somehow, when the clock showed only five seconds left in the game, the Devils were up by one point. But Mende's Michael Hampton swished a 30-footer with hardly any time left and a desperation play by the Devils at the buzzer fell short. The Devils had lost 53-52, the winning streak was snapped at 64 games, and hopes of a second straight championship were gone. The true character of Blue Devil basketball shone bright in the third place game, however, and though the Devils were physically and emotionally drained from the afternoon loss, they executed a miracle play at the buzzer that climaxed a long comeback and a 63-62 victory over Chicago Marshall. There wasn't a fan in Assembly Hall that wasn't moved at the exuberant Quincy student section chanted, "32 and 1, hasn't it been fun!" After all that, third place didn't seem that bad.

When listing awards and accomplishments, one has to start with Senior All-American Bruce Douglas. Bruce is without a doubt the most successful player to ever put on a Blue Devil uniform. His four year accomplishments include a 123-5 team record, the career scoring record of 2023 points, and the career record in assists. This year Bruce made every All-American team in the country, every All-State team in Illinois, Chicago Sun-Times Player of the Year, Mr. Basketball in Illinois, Hertz Rent-A-Car Player of the Year, and Most Valuable Player in the Quincy Thanksgiving and Pontiac tournaments. Oh, by the way, Bruce was also Most Valuable for Quincy High School for the third straight year.

In other awards, junior Dennis Douglas (the other half of the Douglas connection) was named to practically every All-State team in Illinois and was the team's leading rebounder. Seniors Tim Huseman and Mark Sparrow received free throw awards and senior Mark Kaufman was chosen Most Improved. Mr. Jerry Leggett was again the Quincy Herald Whig Coach of the Year. Mr. Mike Hellenenthal was the assistant coach. Senior Brad Shrader served as team mascot for 1981-82.

With Dennis Douglas and other talented underclassmen returning next winter, Blue Devil basketball should be on anything but a downward swing. Once the Devils and their fans get a taste of "Champaign" they always seem to go back for more. Everyone knows the old saying "That's right — we still bad!"

Tournament at the Assembly
Champaign Urbana. The life dreams of the players had ended abruptly and they were forced to play in the third ed consolation game for third place.
After three quarters of uncharacteristic play, the fans seemed to pick up the spirits of the Devils and after a wild fourth quarter comeback, the season came down to a mere two seconds.

The Devils trailed Chicago Marshall 61-60 and had almost the entire length of the court between them and the basket. Dennis Douglas, the Devils All-State Junior, would inbound the ball as the Devils would attempt a miracle play that had failed earlier in the day.
The gym fell silent as the young Douglas uncorked the ball. The ball was poorly thrown and the looks on the worried faces of Devil followers were ones of total doubt. As the ball sailed through the air, it looked like people in "Section A" would be the likely receptists. Then came the miracle, like someone shot out of a cannon, Bruce Douglas, the Devils All-American, and repeat five star player, leaped high in the air, seven feet out of bounds under the basket, and actually caught the ball. With one quick flip of his wrist, Douglas sent the ball flying back inbounds where Tim Husen, the Devils 6'7" center, caught the ball in mid flight and put up a shot. The ball rolled around once twice, and finally funneled through the net! Quincy High had escaped a second straight defeat and the scene was truly an emotional one. There wasn't a team more deserving of a trick like that, and that play seemed to epitomize the entire history of Blue Devil Basketball. Just another happy ending? Not quite.

ONE ON ONE

The season proved to be very successful for the Quincy High girls' basketball team. Under the leadership of Head Coach Larry Kunz, the varsity girls ended their season with a 13-11 record. The Junior varsity squad, under Assistant Coach Kerry Anders, finished with an excellent 11-4 record.

The varsity squad highlighted their year by defeating Notre Dame twice while the Raider girls placed third in the Class A State Tournament. The Devils captured 2nd place in the Hannibal Tournament and 4th place in the Payson Tournament. They competed well throughout the remainder of the season, but lost in a tough game to Jerseyville 46-64 at the District Tournament.

A banquet to honor the players for their excellent achievements was held in March. The Most Valuable Player award was presented to Penny Lewis. Veronica Nixon received the Best Defensive Player award. Lastly, Monica Bell was recognized as Most Improved Player.

TAKE DOWN

This year the wrestlers finished their season with a 16-4 record - the best season ever by a Quincy High team. Head Coach Rollie Platt was pleased with the Devils as were assistant coaches Jim Schultz and Kevin Cory. The JV team was undefeated with a record of 13-0, and placed fifth at the Springfield Tournament.

Tony Barnard (145 lbs.) had a total of fifteen pins for the season making him "Pinner of the Year." Dave Allen (119 lbs.) tallied forty-six takedowns to be named "Mr. Takedown." Allen, with a 26-5 record, was voted Most Valuable. The Most Improved Wrestler Award went to Ed Sassen (98 lbs.). Pete Larence (112 lbs.) received the Don Sloan Award which is presented to the wrestler that does the most to represent wrestling in Quincy. Throughout the season the Wrestlerettes awarded the varsity wrestlers with "Q" pins for each individual pin.

The team attended many tournaments and among them placed fifth at the Mascoutah Tournament, and eighth at the Quincy Invitational Tournament. The wrestlers placed fourth at District, and several wrestlers advanced to Sectionals. Seniors for this season were Tony Barnard, Ken Bentley, Lee Campbell, and Pete Larence. Larence served as team captain.

RUN SILENT, RUN DEEP

"This year's season stated first year coach Dan Lowery felt was very successful. All of the girls scored heavily in more than one event therefore we won several of the bigger Invationals." In addition to placing high in the invitational meets, the Devilettes posted a 2-0 dual meet record against Hannibal. They finished in first place at both Carthage and Chatham Glenwood Invationals. Senior Anne Ogle qualified at District and Sectional Tournaments in the 800 meter run, then went on to place among the top 15 at the IHSAA Girls' State Track Meet.

Awards for the season went to Holly Hultz for Most Improved, and Anne Ogle received Most Valuable.

Seniors on the team were Anne Ogle, Veronica Nixon, Kellea Bergman, Penny Lewis, and Christy Osborn. Coach Lowery was assisted by Kevin Cory, and student teacher Ann Engelmeier.

The very young Q. H. S. Girls' softball team did well in this year's season, making it to the finals in the regional tournament. They were brought out of action by the defending state champs, the Notre Dame Raiders. The Devils finished the regular season with a 12-7 record and went on to easily beat Piasa and North Green in the regional, before losing to Notre Dame 4-0.

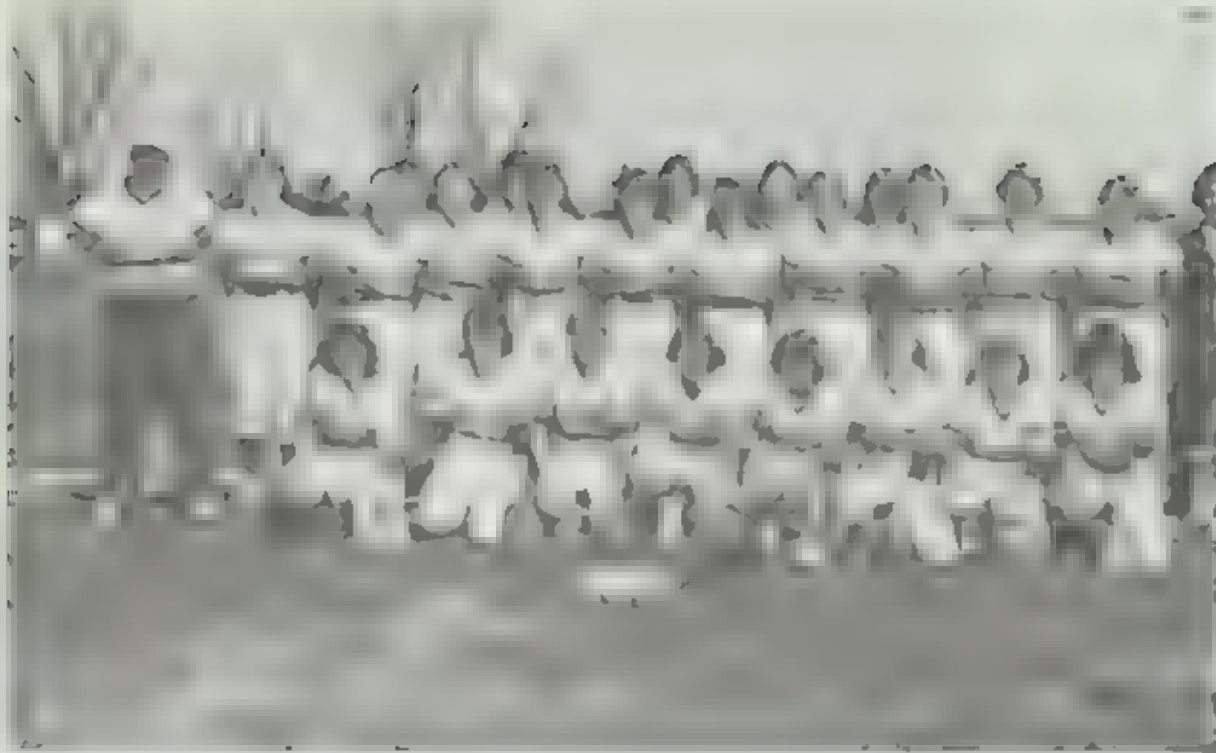

The Devils were led by John Koscielski, with Debbie Routh assisting. Cindy Espeland was the Devils' outstanding pitcher, hurling two no-hitters this year. Robin Holtman was the only senior on the team. The Devils were honored at a banquet in which the outstanding varsity players were awarded letters.

BAD NEWS BEARS

The 1982 Quincy High Baseball Team finished with a sparkling 32-11 record. This was the best record ever posted by a QHS baseball squad. The Dev baggers started the season off smoking and never let up. Though the season ended abruptly with a controversial loss to Jacksonville in the regionals, it didn't take away from the Devils' fantastic campaign. QHS finished with a 5-5 Western Big Six mark that could have easily been 10-0. Many of the conference games were decided by one run or one play.

Many individuals shined throughout the lengthy season. Senior outfielder Don Grissemer led the team in batting with a .362 average. Senior centerfielder Rick Edmundson was superb as the lead-off hitter and Junior Mike Wolf, Junior John Sherman, Grissemer and Junior Larry Sprinkle combined for RB production far better than any team in the area. Freshman stand-out left kinger led the pitching staff with a 6-2 record and 1.72 ERA. Senior John Hrudicka and Junior Mark Anthony also showcased many a good hurling performance. Junior Dave Adam provided strong relief. Mr. Mike Hellenthal was head coach and Mr. Tim Krueberg was the assistant.

With the entire starting infield returning and at least one of the starting pitchers, 1983 could go down as a year to remember in QHS baseball annals.

'LOVE' STORY

Our tennis team this year finished with a six win and seven loss record, and placed second in the Kirksvle Tournament. At Districts, Kellea Bergman and Peggy Shaw placed fourth and qualified for State. Unfortunately, they lost in a tough match to a Chicago team in the first round of State competition.

Several girls received awards with Most Improved Players being Daria Smith and Cathy Oakley. Chosen for the Outstanding Sportsmanship Award were both Patty Osgood and Sharon Hall. Voted as being the Most valuable Players were the doubles team of Kellea Bergman and Peggy Shaw. Captains for the '98 team were Amy Boeckelman and Kellea Bergman. Sharon Hall and Patty Osgood served as Activity Leaders.

The team was coached by Denise Mahair and assistant coaches were Peggy Klauser and Tracy Hagman.

This year's seniors were Patty Osgood, Sharon Hall, Kellea Bergman, Amy Boeckelman, Laura Hagman, and Daria Smith.

PLAYERS

The 1982 Quincy Senior High Tennis Team finished the season with an impressive 14-3 dual meet record, which included a fourth place finish in the Western Big Six Conference. Led by four year varsity star Kevin Heath, the Devinetters captured the district tournament by beating Quincy Notre Dame. The district ended in a tie but after resorting to the fourth tie breaker rule and using a pocket et computer. It was resolved that the Devils had defeated the Raiders.

In individual awards the doubles team of B. Feid and Scott Knontz was selected Most Valuable. Senior stand out Jeff Green was chosen Most Improved Player. Alan Gehrer was the Most valuable Freshman. Mr Mike Terry served as head coach of the squad.

The 1982 Quincy Senior High boys' swim team ended its season with a respectable 4 - 2 dual meet record and a fourth place finish in the Western Big Six. Although the season was a short one, many experienced lettermen had fine individual performances through the year.

Senior John Bitter, along with being captain of the squad, was named Most Valuable swimmer. Mike Stewart was chosen Most Improved, and Bitter and sophomore George Crickard were the recipients of the Mark Delaney Memorial Award. Mr. Dick Stewart served as coach.

"Stroke me stroke me!"

"Now that's a high dive!"

THE DIRTY DOZEN

The 1982 Quincy Senior High Rifle team finished the season with an impressive 7-2 record. Four new teams were added to this year's schedule and this provided the Devil riflers with added competition that prepared them for tougher opponents. The expanded schedule was definitely a plus for the team as QHS finished fourth in the IHSRL State meet and second in the league playoffs.

Team member Richard Brown put together the best season over all and was presumed Most Valuable. Other steady performers were Mike Chastain, Ralph McReynolds and Eric Mst. Mr. Robert Steinhurst again served as coach of the squad.

When we began our year as editors we had "Great Expectations" for the 1982 Quipp. We developed this yearbook "For Your Eyes Only" and we hope that it will "Light Up Your Life" now and ten years from now when you look back at these years which were "The Best Years of Our Lives." We attempted to show "The Way We Were" in all "Four Seasons" of our year. On the pages of this Quipp, you will find "Sleeping Beauty," "The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly," "Four Play," "The Swinging Cheerleader," "Foxes," "Little Rascals," "The Girl With Something Extra," and "The Man Who Knew Too Much." Most of all you will find just "Ordinary People."

Although sometimes we went "Str. Crazy" and it felt like "Just You and Me Kid" we had "A Smashing Time." We would like to thank the twenty-two producers of the 1982 Quipp for "Gang in Style" throughout the book. A special thanks goes to Miss Beal for pulling us through "Time After Time." We would also like to thank Maxwell and Belis Photography, Patrons, and Vincent Price Studios for being our "Legendary Champions." Without all these special people we would have been "Bust'n' Loose."

We wish the best of luck to Missy McKevie and Jody Schultz who will be "The Producers" of next year's Quipp. Keep "Walking Tall" and take each day "Moment by Moment" and you will produce the best yearbook ever.

Sincerely,

Debbie Dohm
Pam Eberhardt
